TIDEWATER BIBLE COLLEGE TURNS NEW PAGE

Tidewater Bible College opens new location with new leadership

Virginia Beach, VA -- July 18, 2008 -- Tidewater Bible College (TBC) has recently gone through a change in leadership as well as location. With the resignation of outgoing President Juanita Weiss, Dr. Donald McNeeley has assumed the reigns of the college. Former President Weiss has been with TBC in various locations for several years and has provided opportunities for many students to gain an affordable theological education.

Along with President McNeeley's promotion, Melissa Gibby, formerly Assistant Dean of Students has assumed the responsibilities of the Academic Dean, left vacant by President McNeeley. A new Board of Trustees was also created to extend the reach of influence of the college beyond their current surroundings.

In addition to new leadership, TBC has moved their academic facilities to a new location. The new board and leadership announced in May that the TBC Academic Center would be moving from Azalea Garden Church of God to their new location at New Hope Christian Fellowship. On June 30, 2008, President McNeeley and Dean Gibby cut the ribbon on the new location and opened it to students. The new location provides TBC with additional office and library space in addition to room for growth.

Incoming President McNeeley states, "God has provided Tidewater Bible College with a new location; a location that provides an area where students and faculty alike can gather to study His Word. Together, the faculty, staff and students need to seek out His desires for our lives and what He desires for Tidewater Bible College. Our future is bright and with God we will be able to conquer any mountain."

Tidewater Bible College exists to provide affordable theological education to students in the Hampton Roads area of Virginia. We promote an approach to Christian life that prioritizes knowing God, serving the forgotten, multiplying disciples and making Him known among the unreached—at home and abroad.
